

EMMEH 2024 SUMMER SCHOOL
June 29th to July 13th – Lille, France

'Future Prospects & Innovation for Euro-Mediterranean & Middle East Heritage – Conservation, Restoration, Valorisation: from Reflection to Practice'

The EMMEH 2024 summer school is a high-standard 60-hour training programme that focuses on conservation, restoration, and valorisation of Cultural Heritage situated in the region of North Africa bordering the Mediterranean Sea, in the Middle East and in Europe.

Coorganised by the Faculty of Humanities of the University of Lille (largest French university) and the International Academy (summer university for international students in Hauts-de-France), EMMEH 2024 will take place in Lille from June 29th to July 13th.

Make the wise choice!

Midway between Paris, London and Brussels, at the heart of a high-performance academic and economic hub that makes innovation a priority, the programme will offer high-level scientific lectures delivered in English by renowned researchers in the field, and a lead into research through a supervised project assessed by an oral defence.

ECTS: 5 credits

Challenge your scientific potential!

As a research-oriented programme, the summer school is dedicated to Master & PhD students willing to network into their PhD or postdoc in France. Excellent Bachelor students are accepted (3rd year undergraduate). Professionals are welcome to apply. The participants should have an advanced level of English proficiency as well as excellent academic results and in-depth knowledge in heritage.
